- Arvo Pärt, Estonian composer
- Heino Tartes, Estonian folk musician and instrument builder
- Estonian traditional musical instruments

MATERIALS

- video projector
- internet connection
- each student will need a digital device for completing an online quiz

ACTIVITIES

During my lesson I will

☒ talk directly to the class

☐ Have the students read

☒ Show a video

☒ Show a slide show

☐ Other(s):

☒ have the students listen to an audio

☐ have the class do an activity

☒ Give an online quiz

☐ have the students play a game

LESSON STEPS

Give a quick description of the different steps of your lesson.

Step 1 - Briefly introduce Arvo Pärt, the world-famous Estonian composer and his music (audio, video clips).

Step 2 - Give an overview of Estonian traditional musical instruments.

Step 3 - Introduce diatonic accordion which has made a revival recently.

Step 4 - Introduce Heino Tartes, our local folk musician and instrument builder.

Step 5 - Introduce Ukuaru valss by Arvo Pärt.

Step 6 - Hold an online quiz based on the topic discussed in the lesson.

EVALUATION

What will your students do to show that they have learned the content you taught?

A short online quiz will be organised to get feedback about the key points discussed.
